News Release

Esquimalt to Measure Up its Accessibility

July 6, 2009

The Township of Esquimalt will be conducting a comprehensive community accessibility audit of all Municipal buildings and facilities as well as local businesses. The accessibility audit will be taking place throughout the week of July 6th – 10th. The purpose of the study is to develop a comprehensive strategy to make the Township of Esquimalt accessible and inclusive for people with disabilities.

The sites that will be assessed in this audit include the municipal hall, recreation centres, the Esquimalt Road commercial district, the Village Centre, and outdoor trails, playgrounds and parks.

The assessment of local businesses will include suggestions for how business owners can increase the accessibility of their services for patrons with disabilities.
